“In Retrospect”

Memories of Saastha Preethi in Kolkata - an Insider's view

- S. R. Chandran

Where to start and where to end? From the year 1954, when this function was conducted at the Blind Lane in front of late Rama Sesha Iyer's hotel, of the ones at the National High School premises (Boys and Girls), or of the many conducted at the R/R Sabha Hall and the adjoining plot, of the ones now being held at our own premises at Lake Avenue?

The nostalgic memories of all these celebrations are still fresh in me. It fills me with pride that most of these years I happened to be a Lilliputian member of the great teams that worked out these events. My enjoyment was from two angles, one as a tiny worker adding whatever little I could to the yeoman services my stalwart friends were rendering, the other by seeing the ecstasy of the devotee public participating in these memorable festivals. Today, it is very gratifying to see that those who attended the festivities those days, still cherish their memories and hold the institution at a high pedestal.

My experience has always been as a string-puller behind the curtain. All through, I never had an opportunity of viewing the Sassthapreethi as a spectator from the front and therefore my views are only as those of a construction worker who admires the huge multiplex before him, to build which he also toiled as 'the proverbial squirrel in Rama's army which built the Ram Sethu'. The love and affection I earned from my colleagues in the Samootham is beyond parallel - but it is physical, monetary or advisory.

Come the Mandalam season, the Samootham exudes with effervescent enthusiasm - the young (and the old) volunteers vie with each other in exerting their best to make the year's biggest event most successful. Separate committees are formed to tackle the different aspects of the activities - The Mandala Vaaram, The Maharudram, The Saasthapreethi - with sub-committees to handle the souvenir publication, Samaraadhana, financial, cultural, religious and other related areas. Each of these committees sportingly compete with each other in their commitment to make the whole event memorable. They approach the beginning of the Mandalam season with trepidation and the work relentlessly till the last event - the grand procession followed by the Anjaneya Utsavam.

It is a sight for the Gods to see - the large number of devotees gathered as the Samootham late into the night on the concluding day, hugging each other Bijoya style over the grand successful finale. The exultant volunteers retire with a blissful satisfaction of a grand work executed with perfection with the blessings of their benevolent Ayyappa.

This is an insider's unbiased viewpoint and should be read as such. Needless to say, the other sister association in Kolkata also conduct their functions with equal shine and splendour. The beauty of the great metropolis of Kolkata is that the volunteers in all these organisations come from the same corps of sincere and pious people - the reason perhaps why it is called the City of Joy.

MY ASSOCIATION WITH SAASTHA SAMOOHAM

Dr R V Venkateswaran

My association with Saastha Samooham began with attending occasional Saturday bhajans and then becoming a Life Member. During the annual Saasthapreethi I used to volunteer for scraping coconuts , cleaning banana leaves etc on Friday night. It used to be lot of fun engaging in this with many other volunteers , both men and women. During the Samaradhana on Saturday , I used to volunteer for serving food .

Later , I had been very privileged to be involved in the management of Samooham for almost three decades - three years as Joint Secretary, twenty three years as Secretary and three years as Vice President. It had enabled me to interact with a vast variety of people and improvise my responses to many difficult situations.

Samooham was looked down upon as “ Stenographers' Association” and also for it's very limited, if at all , social involvement. After I took over as Secretary, I was determined to overhaul the image of Samooham as an important institution of spiritual and social relevance. The first step in this direction was the introduction of tuition fee scholarship scheme to economically deserving students at the primary level of National High School for Girls and Andhra Association School . I think so far more than five hundred students have been benefited from this scheme. It will be worth recalling at this juncture the case of a class 2 student from Andhra Association School who lost his father, the sole earning member. The student was adopted by the Samooham and his education expenses fully supported upto class 12. He excelled in his studies and later after graduation and post graduation , completed a Ph.D. Program, went abroad for further studies and is now well settled in a company in Kolkata. We are glad the scholarship scheme proved a turning point in his life. To encourage talent we introduced cash awards and a citation to the Madhyamik and Ucchha Madhyamik toppers of both National High Schools and Andhra Association School. Later this scheme was expanded to extend limited support towards medical needs, weddings etc of the less privileged section of our community. Regular blood donation camps by Samooham attracted a large number of volunteers. It is satisfying to note that these socially relevant schemes are continuing since more than three decades.

We changed the hollow idol which was in use at that time to a solid Panchaloha Vighram of Lord Saastha along with Upadevatas Lord Ganesha and Lord Muruga and performed the first Kumbhabhishekam. Many of the visiting the Samooham and were appreciative of the changes. Sponsoring Prasadam for Saturdays was introduced to enable devotees to have their choice of Prasadam. We could also get sponsorships for all the items connected with the annual Maharudram and Saasthapreethi . The functions of Samooham were made very inclusive by involving Members/Committees of sister institutions in the organisation of these functions. We introduced a system of identifying and honouring with a citation, members ( including long serving Committee members) who have positively contributed to the welfare and advancement of Samooham's objectives, during our annual Saasthapreethi celebrations. A Welfare Trust was started to channelise the Samooham's socially relevant schemes like fee scholarships, donations to the needy etc. Devotees have been in appreciative support of the many socially uplifting measures.

Samooham's identity is through it's lively bhajans on Saturdays and the enthralling detailed bhajan on the Sunday following annual Saastha Preethi. This is eagerly looked forward to by devotees , gathering in large numbers and enjoying every moment of it. Most of the stalwarts of earlier days are no more now and a new group of young performers is continuing the tradition. We could conduct all the functions of the Samooham , particularly the annual celebrations in a smooth manner thanks to the volunteers of ABASS , ably assisted by volunteers from the devotees .

Devotees looked at Samooham as an extension of their own home and felt free to approach the Secretary even for an occasional personal issue. With the support and encouragement of our devotees, we could procure a flat nearby which became useful to accommodate the Samooham priest and his family. The facilities in the Samooham were also augmented for the greater convenience of the devotees. I am glad to note that recently a lift has been installed to enable the free movement of the elderly.

Managing the affairs of the Samooham was not without the vicissitudes of the office I held. But with the unqualified support and encouragement from my colleagues in the Committee and the goodwill of the devotees, I was able to carry on with the assigned task and raise the status of Samooham to a leading socio spiritual institution in Kolkata. It is my sincere prayer to the Lord that our Saastha Samooham continues to be a beacon of spiritual and social pursuit to devotees of Kolkata and far flung areas.
